4. After section 4 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

10

Power to make rules.

"5. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under the President's Pension Act, 1951, a retiring President of India and the last Governor-General are entitled to a pension of Rs. 15,000/- per annum for life. A person holding the high office of President has even after retirement many public calls on him. It is, therefore, considered desirable to provide him with secretarial staff and office expenses out of public funds.

2. During his term of office, the President is entitled to free medical care and treatment. It is considered desirable that he should be entitled to free medical attendance and treatment even after retirement. Hence, the Bill.

NEW DELHI;

The 21st May, 1962.

LAL BAHADUR.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill provides for secretarial staff and office expenses at a cost not exceeding Rs. 12,000 a year. It also provides for free medical care and attendance for the retiring President. The cost of such medical care and treatment cannot naturally be estimated beforehand and will depend on the advice of the medical authorities from time to time.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

The proposed section 5 empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Act. The rules will provide for the staff which may be engaged for the President and their salaries. Rules will also be framed for providing free medical attendance and treatment for the retiring President. The delegation of legislative powers is thus of a normal character.

M. N. KAUL,
Secretary.
